

The Internet, the Web and the Future of Everything

by

Dame Prof Wendy Hall, University of Southampton

13th March 2015 (Friday)

9:00am - 12:00pm

Dewan Pembangunan Siswa 2 (DPS2), Universiti Sains Malaysia (Penang Campus)

Abstract

In this talk we will look at the evolution of the Internet and the Web from a socio-technical perspective. What were the technological drivers that lead to these amazing developments, how are they changing society and how is society shaping the development of the technology.

We will also look to the future and consider possible scenarios for the future of the Internet and indeed the future of society as the so-called Internet of Things evolves. It is very likely not to be what we expect.
